Choose Chorley - New Year Business Events

Take a look at some of the events planned for businesses in the first months of the new year and get your business off to a flying start in 2017!

Apprenticeship Levy Information Sessions

Runshaw Business Centre is holding three free information sessions for businesses on the new Apprenticeship Levy this month. Coming into force in May 2017 are you fully aware of the implications of these changes? The sessions will also include details of the new Assessment Standards and the impact on taking on future apprentices from Runshaw.

Dates: Tuesday 17th January 8am to 9.30am; Tuesday 24th January 10am to 11.30am; Tuesday 31st January 3.30pm to 5pm.

Business Workshop - Avoid Costly Data Disasters (ICT Compliance & Safety)

Experts say that the consequences for SME's that ignore security risks can be disastrous. In this free workshop organised by Chorley Council, Phil Owen of @pjowen Business Support Specialists will provide an overview of the basic IT Compliance requirements and the importance of the security and integrity of business data. The session will involve the use of overview assessment tools before looking at solutions to issues identified.

Date: Thursday 19th January 5.30pm to 8pm

Invitation to Visit Wigan Youth Zone

Chorley businesses are invited to visit Wigan Youth Zone to see first-hand how such a facility operates in anticipation of Chorley's own Youth Zone opening in late 2017/early 2018. The free event is being hosted by Martin Ainscough, our keynote speaker at the last Choose Chorley Networking Event in November, who is investing £1m of his own money to make this happen in Chorley.

Date: Wednesday 25th January at 6pm.
