Notes

The sessions indicated above are subject to change depending on progress. People should be prepared to start or finish them sooner or later than stated above.

Interested Party (IP) Representations – at least one person wishes to speak, other may also wish to. Any IP can do so providing material is not repeated by multiple individuals. IP’s can also ask questions of appellant’s witnesses.

+ LPA to provide opening submissions to explain its position and the reasons why the appeal is not being contested.

*Mr Suckley’s evidence may move if other appellant witnesses are called.

Inspector questions will be asked before any re-examination.

LPA to provide details for online session on 11 June.
